THE DAYLIGHT STORE

Our June Sale Begins Tuesday Morning, June 5th, 1906

This is a Time When Traveling Men Dispose of Their Samples at But a Part of Their Cost.

Merchandise cannot be sold for less than regular prices unless bought that way. Competition regulates prices. Think that we can show you in this sale where we have saved on many of these purchases from 15 to 35 per cent. Here are Dry Goods that will appeal to you as cheaper than you ever saw them. The kinds that you will want for Summer days. The kinds not made for sales—made for the best that there is—now in this June Sale as follows.

Wash Goods.

If you are ready to buy new, desirable Wash Goods at less than the first cost, if you are going to need these goods later, you cannot well afford to pass this sale. Here are values bought to close, lots that you will not be able to find here later than Saturday of this week.

Warm weather takes an extra amount of these goods, especially the Swiss Collars, as they are low and will launder perfectly. Here you will find Collars that bought in the regular way from jobbing houses would cost you nearly double, at10c, 15c and 25c

Ruchings in all of the new edges by the yard, so that you can have just what you want for length. (Box Ruching has proved to be unsatisfactory with us. By the yard you always get your money's worth.)

We have a large variety of hand-made Lace Sets with collars and cuffs to match, made for the small trade. See them in our show cases at front of store.

Children's Hose.

By a neat purchase of Children's Hose we are able to sell for a few days Fast Black Hose with double knees, spliced heels and toes, at two pairs for25c

Ladies' and Misses' White Hose

We bought early, knowing that the market would be short of White Hose, so that now we have several different grades of Misses' Hose in values as good as last season, which is a good deal to say. We have a good White Hose in gauge size for 25c

Black Cat Hose.

For misses, boys and ladies are built of the very best Egyptian hand-combed cotton, with linen spliced heels, toes and knees, at, per pair25c
